EYFS Briefings for Communication Champions

Description

These hour-long briefings, will update Communication Champions on all national and local developments in the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS), to support their professional development and leadership of the EYFS.

What will it cover?

In the session we will have a focus on talking with parents about their children's communication skills and speech sound development.

We will:

- Share national and local updates;
- Share key findings from recent research which can be applied to practice;
- Develop knowledge and skills through continuing professional development; and
- Network and share what works well.

Delivered by: Bolton Start Well Service, Communication and Language Development Team

Who is this briefing for?

Communication Champions and Senior Leaders.
