Introduction to the role of the Communication Champion

Description

This workshop provides an overview of the role of the Communication Champion and essential knowledge required to support good adult-child interaction. This is essential training for those who are new to this role.

What will I learn?

This two hour workshop introduces the role of the Communication Champion. It focuses on supporting practitioners to understand the role of the Communication Champion and how to embed this work effectively within their setting.

By the end of this workshop, you will:

- Have an understanding of the important role of the Communication Champion and what this entails;
- Be able to share this information with your wider staff team;
- Have an understanding of key communication messages and how to share these effectively with your staff team;
- Begin to see the importance of embedding communication and language aspects in all planning for all children across the whole setting; and
- Find out about additional training available to develop your knowledge and skills in this area.

Communication Champions should look out for further training and briefings available to upskill champions in their role. Communication Champions briefings are also held on a termly basis.

Delivered by: Bolton Start Well Service,
Communication and Language Development Team

Who is this workshop for?

Communication Champions, Room Leaders and Early Years Practitioners.
