Are you ready for the new Ofsted inspection framework?

What happens at this session?

This session is aimed at leaders and managers in Out of School Clubs who are expecting an Ofsted inspection and would like the opportunity to explore what to expect at your next inspection. This is an opportunity for leaders and managers to prepare for inspection through reflection and self-evaluation.

How will this session help?

We will explore the inspection process through practical activity, video clips, case study, discussion and reflection.

We will explore:

- The Inspection Handbook to know the inspection process and what to expect on the day;
- The grade descriptors;
- Good practice examples;
- The importance of action planning and self-evaluation; and
- Recent national and local inspection trends.

Delivered by: Bolton Start Well Service, Quality and Outcomes Team
