Supporting children to master their number development through playful learning

Date: Thursday 30th January 2020

Time: 1:00pm – 4:00pm

Venue: BSTC

A photograph showing several young children in a classroom setting. They are gathered around a large digital screen. The screen displays a colorful illustration of a pond with green grass, a brown log, and several bright green frogs. Below the illustration, there are large, white, 3D-style number tiles for the numbers 2, 3, 4, and 5. One child is pointing at the number 3. The children are seen from behind, looking at the screen.
