Supporting Children with English as an Additional Language EAL

Description

This practical workshop offers essential knowledge and hands on activities to support your understanding of how children learn additional languages and will enable you to support EAL learners and their families within your setting.

What will I learn?

In this workshop, you will:

- Learn about how children acquire additional language/s, the brain development and processes involved;
- Learn about key messages and strategies to support EAL learners and their families;
- Gain an awareness of Nassea materials and other resources to support EAL learners;
- Find out about how to create a welcoming environment and establish a good working relationship with multilingual families;
- Devise an action plan to support the implementation of strategies within your setting and facilitate sharing this learning with colleagues.

Delivered by: Bolton Start Well Service, Early Communication & Language Development Team

Who is this workshop for?

This workshop is suitable for all practitioners working with children throughout the early years.
