Peer Observation

Description

This workshop provides an opportunity to learn and develop skills to support peer observation. It will promote a whole staff contribution to critical evaluation and further improve the quality of teaching and learning.

How will this course help?

We will:

- Understand the purpose of peer to peer observation and how it can support the development of effective practice;
- Discuss ways to increase skills and confidence in the peer observation process;
- Learn how to use peer observations as a vehicle to promote a shared responsibility and accountability for identifying strengths and areas for development to further improve the provision;
- Identify how to support your own personal development and wellbeing; and
- Inform the future professional development training needs of the team.

Delivered by: Bolton Start Well Service, Quality and Outcomes Team
