Changes to Inclusion Fund processes

Description

This workshop is essential for all providers applying for Early Years Inclusion Funding and is designed to help practitioners improve outcomes for children with SEND using the Inclusion Fund and effective assessments that break down the developmental steps of the EYFS.

What will I learn?

By the end of this workshop, you will have:

- An awareness of the Early Years SEN Inclusion Funding;
- An understanding of the process of applying for and using the Early Years SEN Inclusion Funding;
- Considered the importance of assessment and how this can support children with SEND;
- An understanding of the Early Support Development Journal; and
- Knowledge of how to use assessments made using the Developmental Journal whilst applying for and claiming EYIF.

Delivered by: Start Well SEND Team

Who is this workshop for?

This workshop is essential for practitioners working with funded children aged 2-5 years (not children attending Reception classes) and their families. It is suitable for Managers, EYFS Leads, SENCOs, Room Leaders and all Early Years Practitioners.
