Early Years SEND Workshop: Strategies to support children with challenging behaviour

Description

This training will give you the tools to identify the triggers that can lead to unwanted behaviours before it is too late and the anger cycle has started. It will help you de-escalate situations that can lead into unwanted behaviours.

What will I learn?

Many children struggle to understand and regulate their thoughts and emotions which can lead to anger. This workshop explores thought process and teaches learners regulation strategies to help children manage their thoughts and feelings.

By the end of the workshop, you will:

- Know the signs that can lead to unwanted behaviour;
- Know how to intervene safely; and
- Know what preventative strategies are.

Delivered by: Ladywood Outreach Service
