

Language Through Listening

Delivering effective interventions that address poor listening and attention skills in children aged two and over

Date: Thursday 12th November 2020

Time: 4:00pm – 6:00pm

Venue: Harvey Centre

A photograph of two young children, a girl with curly brown hair and a boy with blonde hair, sitting at a table. The boy is holding a red spoon to his mouth, and the girl is holding a pink cup. They appear to be engaged in a play activity. The background is slightly blurred, showing what looks like a classroom or play area with colorful posters on the wall.

Language Through Listening Workshop

Description

This workshop is based around the Language through Listening Resource Pack. This great resource delivers effective interventions that address poor listening and attention skills in children entering the Early Years Foundation Stage. This session underpins 'Letters and Sounds' (Phase 1).

What will I learn?

The workshop will focus on the use of the Language through Listening Resource Pack and delivers interventions focused on developing eye contact, turn taking and listening and attention skills. The workshop uses interactive teaching methods, practical activities and group discussion to engage learners.

By the end of the workshop, you will:

- Have improved knowledge of attention and listening skills;
- Know how to improve children's eye contact, turn taking, listening and attention skills and how to develop early sound awareness;
- Be able to carry out an intervention group to support attention and listening skills; and
- Make effective use of the Early Years Pupil Premium and Pupil Premium Grant.

Delivered by: Bolton Start Well Service,
Communication and Language Development Team

Who is this workshop for?

This workshop is aimed at practitioners working with children aged 2 years and over and their families. It is also suitable for Managers, Communication Champions, EYFS Leads, SENCOs and Room Leaders.
