Are you ready for your Ofsted inspection?

What happens at this session?

This session is aimed at childminders who are expecting an Ofsted inspection and would like the opportunity to discuss what to expect at inspection. It is an opportunity for childminders to prepare for inspection through reflection and self-evaluation.

How will this session help?

This is a session to explore the inspection process through discussion and reflection, scrutiny of relevant documentation and signposting to relevant resources including video clips.

We will explore:

- The Inspection Handbook to know the inspection process and what to expect on the day;
- The grade descriptors;
- Good practice examples;
- The importance of risk assessments, self-evaluation and action planning; and
- Other relevant documentation and legislation impacting on childminders eg COVID-19.

Delivered by: Bolton Start Well Service, Quality and Outcomes Team

Who is this session for?

This professional development session is aimed at newly registered childminders and childminders who are due an Ofsted inspection.
